

Peter Hexter is a Chartered Accountant and Director of CooperAitken.

Peter joined the firm in 1998 and became a director in 2004.

Peter is extremely committed and has real passion for helping his clients achieve their financial goals and aspirations. He takes pride in guiding you through your financials and ensuring you understand them, so together you can make better business decisions that will benefit your business and the family. He works diligently with you during all stages of your business career, and seeing success for his clients is the motivation that drives him each day.

Seeking to build long term relationships with his clients Peter enjoys working with a wide range of clients from the commercial sector to the rural scene.

Chairman of the CooperAitken board, Peter is a strong forward thinking leader of the firm. He is extremely supportive and level headed and enjoys mentoring our team members, always pushing them to seek out the best solution.

Seeing success for his clients is the motivation that drives Peter each day.

Peter and his wife, Vanessa, own a small block of land in Morrinsville. They have two daughters, Summer (three) and Charlee (two) who keep them very busy. They enjoy working on their jointly owned business, Solar Partners NZ. Outside of work, you won't find Peter much happier than when he is on his surfboard, or at the gym.

Peter's long established accounting experience, professionalism and dedication coupled with his friendly down to earth and approachable nature, makes Peter a great person to have on your team.
